

Yanit Asulin

Israel's Folklore Singer

My name is Yanit Asulin, and I am known as Israel's Folklore Singer. As a cultural researcher and an international vocalist performing in over 10 languages (including Ladino, Greek, Moroccan, Spanish, and traditional Jewish liturgy), I specialize in creating world-class, authentic musical experiences for high-end events.

Backed by a premier network of hand-picked virtuoso musicians, my performances bring an uncompromised standard of live production, deep cultural roots, and an unforgettable, high-energy atmosphere—perfectly tailored for Gala Dinners, Philanthropic Events, and Luxury Celebrations.

Having previously collaborated with international event bands in London and leading cultural institutions in Israel, I understand the exact standards required to create a breathtaking experience for sophisticated audiences.

Looking forward to connecting and creating something spectacular together.

Warm regards,

Yanit Asulin
